Welcome!

Parents’ & Family Weekend 2006

Duke University invites you to attend Parents’ & Family Weekend 2006. This weekend provides an opportunity for your family to visit with your student and to share in their Duke experience. Parents’ & Family Weekend is a special time for parents, siblings, students, and family members. Discover what the university has to offer, in and out of the classroom, and learn about the organizations, people, and places that have become home to your student.

This brochure provides a preview of this year's festivities as well as information that will be helpful to you as you plan your visit. Please use the form in this brochure to register or register online at http://parents.studentaffairs.duke.edu. We hope you will be among the estimated 4,000 family members and friends to join us for Parents’ & Family Weekend. We look forward to greeting you!

Sincerely,

The Division of Student Affairs

REGISTRATION
Parents and Families who have pre-registered for the weekend by October 6th will receive their parking pass and all tickets for the weekend via U.S. Mail. Pre-registration is strongly encouraged, as West Campus and the Bryan Center will be very congested on Friday, October 27th. Those who register after October 6th or who register on-site can pick up their registration packet at the registration desk in the Bryan Center Lobby from 9:00a.m.-5:00p.m. on Friday and 9:00a.m.-1:00p.m. on Saturday. Tickets and registration packets will remain at the Bryan Center on Saturday. Do not go to football stadium for tickets!

PARKING
We are pleased to offer an easy solution to parking during Parents’ & Family Weekend. For $12, you will have access to East, West and Central Campus parking as available. This pass includes football game day parking for Saturday, October 28th. If interested, please be sure to include this on the registration form on the back of this booklet. You will receive this parking pass in your registration packet via mail (if pre-registered by October 6th) or when you check-in at the Bryan Center lobby (for late/on-site registration).

Please note – you can park on-campus without this pass. Visitor parking lots are $2/hour and football game day (Saturday) parking is $5.

Please note – All parking lots on Friday, October 27th will be very congested and may require the use of shuttle service to campus locations. This service will be provided free of charge to Parents’ & Family Weekend permit holders. Parking is not permitted in handicapped spaces, service vehicle spaces, those designated by a number or the name of a specific person, or next to any curb marked “No Parking” or “Fire Lane” by signs. Failure to comply with the above procedures will result in a ticketed or towed car. If you have a handicapped placard on your car, it will be good for any general, non-reserved, handicapped parking space on campus.

INFORMATION SERVICES
General university and community information can be obtained from the Bryan Center Information Desk. Telephones, restrooms, and university stores are located on the main floor of the Bryan Center. Directions to campus are available by calling 919-681-5678 or at: http://www.duke.edu/directions/mapsplash.html. DUKE GARDENS TOUR AND RECEPTION
Volunteer docents will conduct a guided tour of this premiere 55-acre public garden and provide information about its history, the Duke family, and current projects. The tour will begin promptly at 1:00 p.m. Participations will gather by the iris fountain in front of the Doris Duke Center.

STUDENT FOR A DAY LECTURE SERIES
Experience first-hand some of Duke’s premier professors as one faculty member presents a challenging, yet accessible lecture in her area of scholarship and teaching, and others engage in a panel discussion. The Student for a Day Lecture Series gives you a chance to find out what it’s like in a Duke undergraduate classroom as well as the liveliness of exchange that can happen in after-hours gatherings.

This program, now in its 27th year, is designed by the Office of Continuing Studies for the Division of Student Affairs.

1:00-2:00 P.M.

STUDENT FOR A DAY I

Griffith Film Theater, Bryan Center, West Campus

Lemurs of Madagascar, lorises of Asia, and galagoes (bushbabies) of Africa – we have them all at the Duke Lemur Center, nestled in the Duke Forest barely a mile away from West Campus. Home to over 300 prosimians and representing the world’s largest collection of endangered primates, the Lemur Center is at the heart of exciting scientific research, educational initiatives, and conservation efforts. Learn why the work done at the Duke Lemur Center is at the forefront of primate evolution and genomic studies.

Dr. Anne Yoder is Professor of Biology and Director of the Duke Primate Center. She came to Duke in 2005-06 from Yale University where she was associate professor of ecology and evolutionary biology and the associate curator of mammals at Yale’s Peabody Museum.

TREASURES AND TECHNOLOGY: GUIDED TOUR OF PERKINS LIBRARY
Meet at the Perkins Library lobby for a tour of the Rare Book Rooms of the Rare Book, Manuscript, and Special Collections Library and the Perkins and Bostock Libraries. See the latest in modern research library resources available to Duke students.
Perkins Library Lobby, West Campus

SMART MOVES AT DUKE
Join Sheila Curran, the Fannie Mitchell executive director of Duke’s Career Center, and author of the highly-acclaimed book “Smart Moves for Liberal Arts Grads: Finding a Path to Your Perfect Career”, for a candid discussion on life and careers for the liberally educated. Through years of work with students and alumni, Ms. Curran found consistent themes for people who have followed their passion and found the career of their dreams. These themes are captured in the book and will be discussed in the session.
Von Canon Rooms A&B, Bryan Center, West Campus

STUDENT FOR A DAY II
DISCUSSION OF MY SISTER’S KEEPER
Griffith Film Theater, Bryan Center, West Campus
Jodi Picoult’s award-winning novel, My Sister’s Keeper, was chosen by a group of faculty and students last spring to be this year’s first-year student summer reading assignment. The story of the teenaged Anna who was genetically engineered to be a bone marrow donor for Kate, her leukemia-stricken older sister, the novel has been the talk of the campus this fall.

Join a group of faculty and students in exploring the multi-faceted dimensions of My Sister’s Keeper. The panel will be moderated by Provost Peter Lange, Professor of Political Science. Expected participants include Professor Robert Cook-Deegan of Public Policy and the Institute for Genome Sciences and Policy, Professor Nancy Hill of English, and Professor Jean O’Barr of Women’s Studies and Political Science, and several undergraduates. Your participation in the discussion is welcomed.

3:00P.M. HELPING IMPROVE YOUR STUDENT’S MENTAL HEALTH – FROM HOME!
This session will provide you with information about the mental health services available for Duke students through Counseling and Psychological Services. In addition, presenters will give parents some tools and strategies to facilitate their student’s mental health from a distance. Topics will address difficult situations, limits of confidentiality, and your role as a role model.

Von Canon Room C, Bryan Center, West Campus

4:00P.M. GETTING ENGAGED: STUDENT LEADERSHIP PROJECTS AT HOME AND AROUND THE WORLD
Exercising leadership means finding the courage to engage in public life. Through the Hart Leadership Program, students combine academic study with direct experience in local and international communities. From conducting field-based research in Cambodia to working alongside Durham neighborhood partners, students are finding that their work requires passion and a sense of purpose, as well as patience for dealing with chaos. Come join us as a talented group of undergraduates ‘go public’ with what they’ve learned in the process.

WINE & CHEESE WELCOME FOR ALL INTERNATIONAL PARENTS
We would like the opportunity to invite all parents of our international students to an open house to chat about the work of the International House and address any questions or concerns you may have.

International House, 2022 Campus Drive, Central Campus

DEVL’S EVE
This event sponsored by Campus Council, is an afternoon carnival full of food, drinks, rides, and shows. Last year the event featured top student bands, a cappella groups, and dance groups at Duke. If you’re hungry, carnival food (pizza, funnel cakes, etc.) will be available throughout the event. The event also raised money for Hurricane Katrina relief by asking student and Greek groups to set up booths for games that children, students and adults could play for a small donation. Campus Council looks forward to seeing you there.

West Campus Quad

DELIBERATIONS SYMPOSIUM
Deliberations: A Journal of First-Year Writing at Duke University is dedicated to publishing writing produced in Duke’s Writing 20 courses and making it available to a wider audience. At the annual Deliberations Symposium, student-authors engage in a panel discussion on writing- and publication-related issues with editors, faculty members, students, and parents. Please join us to learn more about student writing and publishing at Duke.

DUKE UNIVERSITY UNION PRESENTS CHUCK KLOSTERMAN
Chuck Klosterman is America’s premier pop journalist, "the reigning Kasparov of pop culture wits-matching" as The San Francisco Chronicle puts it. His three best-selling books manage to connect and make sense of the seemingly random elements of our cultural landscape in ways that are inventive and insightful. They best exemplify the old adage that "pop" is a conversation that anyone can join in on.
Klosterman is a senior writer at SPIN and writes a monthly column, "Chuck Klosterman’s America," for Esquire, where he wrote that magazine's infamous 70th anniversary cover story on Britney Spears. Klosterman has also written for The New York Times magazine, The Washington Post, GQ, ESPN magazine and The Believer. His work has been anthologized in Dave Egger’s Best American Non-Essential Reading series and is regularly chosen for the prestigious Da Capo Best Music Writing annual. His next book, a collection of his best-known journalism and columns, tentatively titled Chuck Klosterman 4, will be released in September 2006.
