Hi,

No problem! I agree to the license. Attached is a copy of my thesis.

Thank you so much!

Well, that's no fun. I can submit the document on your behalf, although I'll need to you read through and agree to the DukeSpace license (attached). You can either print and sign and send back, or respond via email that you agree to the license.

If you can send me a copy of your thesis, as well as agreement to the license, I will get the process started on my end.

Sorry for the challenges heretofore.

Best,
matthew
